

Pourquoi ces études-duos ?

Commencer l'apprentissage d'un instrument, passe par l'étude d'exercices tirés d'une méthode. Ceux-ci sont illustrés par des petites pièces et également des études. L'étudiant instrumentiste est, à cet instant, encore seul.

Apprendre à jouer d'un instrument, quel qu'il soit, doit tendre vers la musique d'ensemble, la pratique collective.

Ainsi, je vous propose des duos. Ceux-ci pourront être joués dès le début de l'apprentissage de la clarinette. Ils sont gradués en difficultés et suivent l'évolution d'une méthode de clarinette courante. Chaque duo reprend un problème technique abordé dans la méthode.

Parlons de la 2<sup>ème</sup> voix. Elle pourra être réalisée soit par le professeur d'instrument, soit par un 2<sup>ème</sup> élève.

Quoi de plus merveilleux que de savoir que l'on apprend un instrument pour pouvoir jouer avec ses amis !

Vous aurez remarqué certaines lignes de musique, sans notes de musique. Libre à vous de remplir ces lignes selon votre imagination, mais, en utilisant la problématique travaillée dans le duo précédent.

Et enfin, les Battle. Le but de ces textes est d'apprendre à jouer en écoutant l'autre. Savoir maintenir UNE pulsation pour pouvoir enchaîner tout le texte.

Ces duos auront également toute leur place lors d'une audition ou d'un concert.

Puissent ces duos vous donner encore plus envie de travailler votre merveilleuse clarinette !
